INTRODUCTION

We are thrilled to present our new partnerships to race in 2020 which you will see from this booklet follow our tried and tested formula. We have purchased five yearlings, four colts and one filly from the major sales in the UK and Ireland. KVT is in the enviable position of having our horses trained in some of the top yards in the country and we welcome Ed Walker to our roster for 2020. Ed has been based at the historic Kingsdown Stables in Upper Lambourn since 2016 and has sent out over 300 domestic winners. Kingsdown was responsible for the winner of the 1974 Derby with Snow Knight.

We have had a fantastic season with our three-year-old boys. Persian Moon competed in many a race and ran at most of the major festival meetings. Although he narrowly missed getting his head in front, he was a memorable fourth at Royal Ascot and has now been sold for a considerable profit to race overseas. Flashcard was another stand-out this season winning a valuable handicap at Ascot before being placed in Group 3 company. He too will continue his racing career abroad having been privately sold for around 10 times his original purchase price. These two were rated in the 100's and not far behind has been the shrewdly purchased Sir Busker, who has now won three times, is rated in the 90's and will be a KVT flag bearer for next season. Scheduled to come back next season is our star sprinter Magical Memory who has been off-games for a year or so, but is currently in good shape and should return to Charlie Hills in the New Year.

Our two-year-olds have not really got fully rolling this year for various reasons, although Dance Fever has won two from two and looks an exciting colt for next year. He had some niggles in the Spring but has flourished since heading to Clive Cox after some excellent work from Hetta Stevens. Both Kashmirella and Spanish Kiss made promising debuts and both look to have a good year ahead of them as they grow into their frames. Streak Lightning was showing up well at Mark Johnston's before he was sidelined with an injury, but we look forward to his progress next season, especially as his sire has had a fantastic start to his stud career. Flashcard's not-so-little sister Castleinthesand will need a little more time but both her half-brother and sire have had great years and we remain highly excited about her future.

We have all been treated to some excellent stable visits this year and, as always, we thank our trainers, their wives and teams for looking after us all so well. 2020 will follow a similar programme and we will be sending round the dates early in the New Year.

This is now our 7th crop of yearlings since we took over the KVT reins from Nick Robinson, when Magical Memory was shown to some of you, and although yearling prices have risen over this period we have managed to purchase all these new babies for around our target price of £50,000. Therefore a special mention for the efforts of our bloodstock agent Luke Lillingston who has, along with our trainers and team, unearthed what we believe to be a fine group of youngsters.

As ever shares will be sold on a first come first served basis and we wish you the very best of luck with your new purchase.

Sam Hoskins and Piers Winkworth

THE ANDREW BALDING SYNDICATE

Holy Roman Emperor / Izola colt

This colt is by the top class two-year-old Holy Roman Emperor, who famously retired to stud prematurely upon the announcement of George Washington's infertility. He has proven a high class stallion ever since with many top class sons/daughters flying his flag all over the world. These include this year's Prix Jacques Le Marois (Group 1) winner, Romanised, and of course KVT's own Charles The Great who won the Weatherbys Super Sprint before being sold to race on in Hong Kong where he made up into a high class and consistent sprinter.

The dam, Izola, is by the well-bred Beat Hollow and was rated 95 herself on the flat in her native France when trained by Freddy Head. She is a half-sister to the Listed winner Brick By Brick and their dam, Pivka, is a daughter of the Nell Gwyn (Group 3) winner Ghariba, herself a great broodmare.

We bought this colt for €38,000 at the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale which makes him eligible for the €300,000 Tattersalls Ireland Super Auction Sales Race. Andrew Balding will train him which is very appropriate given he also trained Charles The Great for KVT. Both Andrew's mother, Emma, and assistant, Tessa Hetherington, were great admirers of this colt at the sale.

Luke Lillingston commented: "One of Nick Robinson's best and most profitable buys was Charles The Great by the perennially successful sire Holy Roman Emperor. The last time we teamed up with Emma Balding was for Flashcard at this sale. Flash's dam is by the outstanding broodmare sire Pivotal, sire of this colt's second dam. This colt's first dam is by Khalid Abdullah's beautifully bred Beat Hollow, by Sadler's Wells. Charles The Great was out of a mare by Baratheia, also a son of the Sadler's Wells. In other words we have tried hard to line up the stars again and with this beautiful colt I believe we may well have done so. I have every hope that he will be the next KVT star at Kingsclere."

THE CHARLES HILLS SYNDICATE

Equiano / Penny Drops colt

This strong colt is by the dual Group 1 winning sprinter Equiano. Equiano has made up into a useful stallion since through the likes of multiple Group 1 winner, The Tin Man, as well as Strath Burn and Equilateral both of which were trained by Charlie. It is indeed a sire line in which Faringdon Place has become hugely adept - not least via Equiano's paternal half-brother, Dark Angel (by Acclamation), who won at Group 1 level for Barry Hills before establishing himself as one of the best sires in the current era.

The dam, Penny Drops, was a high class mare herself, gaining black type on numerous occasions for William Haggas. Her first foal, a two-year-old named Badri (a son of Dark Angel), is in training with Charlie Hills and is well-regarded. Penny Drops is a daughter of another black type mare in Penny Cross, herself a half-sister to the Celebration Mile (Group 2) winner, Priors lodge.

We bought this colt for £50,000 at the Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale which makes him eligible for the £250,000 Goffs UK Premier Yearling Stakes. He is also eligible for the Plus10 Bonus. Charlie Hills loved this colt at 'Donny' and will train him which is exciting given his family connection to the pedigree.

Luke Lillingston commented: "The Aga Khan was once asked what were the three most important attributes in a racehorse. He famously replied "Speed, speed and more speed!" This colt's sire Equiano was Barry Hill's last great sprinter, memorably winning two King's Stand Stakes at Royal Ascot. His propensity to impart speed in his offspring has produced the likes of The Tin Man and Strath Burn. This colt's dam is by champion sire Invincible Spirit and she earned black type on no fewer than six separate occasions as a two and three-year-old. In turn her dam gained her black type at Ascot. This colt allows us to dream of another Hills speedball in the KVT colours!"

THE MARK JOHNSTON SYNDICATE

New Approach / Welsh Angel filly

This filly is by the Champion Racehorse of Europe New Approach, a son of the awesome Galileo, who won five Group 1 races for Jim Bolger. Going to stud with significant expectation he has not disappointed, siring numerous classic winners such as Dawn Approach, Talent and Masar. The latter emulated New Approach himself when taking last year's Epsom Derby.

The dam, Welsh Angel, is a daughter of the great broodmare sire Dubai Destination who hails from the wonderful family of the top class middle distance fillies Cerulean Sky and Moonstone. At stud, she looks a highly promising broodmare, siring three horses rated 95 or more from four runners. Two of these, Scarlet Dragon and Commander Cole, are rated over 105 with the former a redoubtable character under both codes for Eve Johnson-Houghton and now Alan King. Both of these could boost the pedigree further over the coming seasons whilst the dam's current two-year-old (an unnamed colt by Helmet – who we liked at the sales last year interestingly) is well regarded and expected to make his debut shortly for Paddy Twomey in Ireland.

We bought this filly for 60,000gns at the Tattersalls Book 1 Yearling Sale which makes her eligible for the £25,000 Book 1 Bonus should she win a Class 4 or above Novice/Maiden race as a two-year-old, something Mark Johnston helped us to achieve with Persian Moon last year. Mark was enthusiastic about this filly at the sales and she fitted into his high ratings criteria when it comes to purchase.

Luke Lillingston commented: “What a beautiful beast of a filly this is. It did not come as a surprise when Piers Winkworth reported her impressive post auction weight of 448 kilos, yet she is feminine whilst possessing a very strong action. I am familiar with this family as it was beautifully nurtured at Kilfrush Stud, close to my home in Co Limerick. Hardly a year goes by without yet another high class racehorse emanating from it and I am more than hopeful that this lady will be another.”

THE WILLIAM KNIGHT SYNDICATE

Belardo / Teide Lady colt

This attractive colt hails from the first crop of the Champion two-year-old and Dewhurst (Group 1) winner Belardo, who went on to win the Lockinge (Group 1) aged four. Belardo is very much bred to be a top class stallion. A son of the leading sire Lope De Vega, he actually achieved a higher Timeform rating on the track than his own sire. His dam, Danaskaya, was herself very fast and precocious, and earned the accolade of being crowned Champion two-year-old filly in Ireland.

The dam, Teide Lady, is a winning daughter of the Sheikh Hamdan's outstanding Derby winner Nashwan who has already produced the Group 3 winning two-year-old Ayaar at stud to date. She, herself, is a half-sister to the Superlative Stakes (Group 2) winner Hatta Fort as well as a very recent Group 3 winner in the shape of Brian Meehan's Spirit Of Appin.

We bought this colt for 50,000gns at the Tattersalls Book 1 Yearling Sale which makes him eligible for the £25,000 Book 1 Bonus should he win a Class 4 or above Novice/Maiden race as a two-year-old, something our own Persian Moon accomplished last year. William Knight loved him at the sales and will train him from his idyllic Angmering Park base in Sussex.

Luke Lillingston commented: "First impressions are usually the best. This colt had hardly come out of his box and stood up when I took an immediate shine to him. He has a beautiful head and a really classy eye. His body and athletic movement then meant he was firmly on our wish list, coinciding with William Knight's enthusiasm for him. His sire had outstanding acceleration evidenced in his brilliant Dewhurst and Lockinge wins. His female family is one of Anthony Oppenheimer's best and I was lucky enough to buy the high class Miss Keller, this colts third dam. Interestingly one of our frequent protagonists in the sales ring Anthony Bromley, for whom I have maximum respect, felt we had bought great value and regretted not bidding for this colt. Thank goodness he didn't!"

THE ED WALKER SYNDICATE

Dutch Art / Pink Flames colt

This colt is by the Prix Morny and Middle Park (both Group 1's) winner Dutch Art, a son of the top class miler Medicean who has made up into a fine stallion. At stud to date, he has sired the likes of Group 1 winning sprinters Slade Power, Garswood and most recently Mabs Cross amongst many other top class performers.

The dam, Pink Flames, an own-sister to the E P Taylor Stakes (Grade 1) winner Lahaleeb, has produced two winners at stud to date including a Listed winner in Spain, Flanders Flame, as well as the 90-rated Scorching Heat. This is the family of the top class Cheveley Park Stud pair, Virtual and Iceman.

We bought this colt for 42,000gns at the Tattersalls Book 3 Yearling Sale which makes him eligible for the £150,000 Tattersalls October Auction Stakes. He is also eligible for the Plus10 Bonus. Ed Walker was very enthusiastic about him at the sales and will train him from Bjorn Nielsen's impressive Kingsdown Stables in Lambourn.

Luke Lillingston commented: "I remember Dutch Art all too well to my cost when he beat a yearling I had bought named Hoh Mike in the Norfolk Stakes at Royal Ascot. Not only did Dutch Art go on to win the Group 1 Prix Morny in his next start, he became a highly accomplished stallion at Cheveley Park Stud in Newmarket. Latterly his fertility has waned and there aren't very many of them to buy, so it was very pleasing to attain a full brother to one of his stakes winners. As a May foal he has plenty of scope to fill into an impressive frame and we can expect to see a really fine horse next Spring. With his dam being a full sister to a Classic placed Group 1 winner, both sides of his pedigree offer plenty of potential."
